Welcome to Pardubice region

The Pardubice Region, located in the eastern part of the Czech Republic, is known for its rich history, picturesque landscapes, and vibrant culture. The region is famous for its medieval towns, including Pardubice, the regional capital, which is known for its impressive chateau and horse racing tradition. The region also offers natural beauty, with parts of the Bohemian and Moravian Highlands. Its economy thrives on industries such as manufacturing, agriculture, and chemical production, and it boasts several charming villages and historical sites.

What is this BIP about?

Are you curious about what our planet will look like in the coming years and what we should all do? Would you like to know more about the Innovation Ecosystem you are also involved in?

This course will bring you answers to these and other questions from both the private and public sector perspectives. You will gradually learn what innovation ecosystems are, who their main stakeholders are and how they interact with each other. Subsequently, you will investigate the issues of sustainable development, circular and regenerative economy, and find out how each of us can help protect the environment.
