

BIP Erasmus+ INFI 2025

10. 11. – 28. 11. 2025 Online
01. 12. – 05. 12. 2025 Face-to-face

How are macroeconomic indicators related to international finance and trade? How do central banks affect international trade? How should individual companies navigate the complex world of international finance and trade? What to look out for in the world of international finance and trade in a time of complexity and uncertainty? What was happening in the world during the major financial crises and how did this affect international finance and trade?

This course will answer these questions and more. You will learn about the role of maintaining stable monetary policies and their instruments. You will explore the environment that affects international companies from the perspective of the supply chain, the internal corporate environment and macroeconomic indicators, and international finance and trade.

The course is designed as a blended intensive program that combines online and offline learning activities. The aim of the course is to help you understand the complexity of the international finance and trade environment and learn to navigate it, anticipate its context and its future developments.

NOMINATION DEADLINE:

12. 10. 2025

At the end of the course you will be able to: identify and evaluate the factors that influence international finance and trade, apply the context of this environment to corporate decision-making, and develop your economic education for your personal and professional development.

If you are interested in learning how to navigate the complex and interconnected world of finance and trade, this course is for you!

WHO IS INFI FOR?

Third year undergraduate students who want to get into the secrets of international finance and markets, as well as understand the different factors and connections that have a significant impact on them.

WHAT STUDENTS WILL LEARN?

What are the factors that affect international finance and trade, as well as the continuity and complications of supply chains, and equally necessary is knowledge of the internal environment of companies and the processing of their financial statements. Knowledge of the macroeconomic environment and monetary policy instruments that fundamentally affect international trade and finance is important.

WHAT THE STUDENTS SHOULD BRING TO THE CLASS?

Basic knowledge of international trade and finance, macroeconomic indicators of selected countries and a basic overview of company financial statements.

INFI 2025 TAKEWAYS

The aim of the INFI BIP is to understand and also test the process of strategy setting as a result of the complex environment of international finance and trade for a selected company in a test environment without real consequences. By formulating and presenting their business strategy, students can prepare for their managerial and entrepreneurial roles.

HOW DOES INFI WORK?

- 5 days face-to-face interaction between instructors and participants.
- 10 hours classroom work and teamwork on the University of Pardubice campus solving tasks.
- Workshop with experts from the Czech National Bank.
- Online session with the learning through case studies.
- Online sessions with the possibility to discuss and to develop the project.

WHEN WILL IT TAKE PLACE?

- Online sessions: 10. 11. – 28. 11. 2025
- Face-to-face sessions: 01. 12. – 05. 12. 2025
- Presentation of student work for credit on the last day of the face-to-face part of the mobility in Pardubice, 05. 12. 2025.

WHAT WILL STUDENTS RECEIVE?

- 3 ECTS credits after the mobility.
- The opportunity to explore the beautiful Czech Republic.
- The chance to meet and engage with new students.
- The chance to visit the headquarters of the Czech National Bank and participate in a workshop with their experts.

Faculty of Economics and Administration
University of Pardubice, Studentská 95, 532 10 Pardubice 2

Coordinator for BIP Erasmus+ students: Olga Linhartova (Ms)
E-mail: olga.linhartova@upce.cz

Education that counts